Here it is again—the same old story. Yesterday William Long slashed Lee Johnson with a razor nearly severing one of his fingers. Both are colored, the latter working at George Pollitt's livery stable, where the fracas occurred. Long was tried before Judge Whitaker yesterday and decision reserved until today. He is the same fellow that played such a mean trick on Harry L. Walsh several years ago when Barnum & Bailey's Circus showed here and it rained pitchforks. Harry will remember the circumstances.

Mr. Buffington is the son of Mrs. Styles, formerly of this city but now of Portsmouth, and well known here.

JOHN C. HERNDON.

A telegram was received in this city yesterday conveying the intelligence of the death of Mr. John C. Herndon at Louisville yesterday morning of acute Bright's disease.

His wife, who preceded him to the grave some years ago, was a Miss Dimmitt of Mason county.

He leaves two children, Mr. Lyne Herndon, who married Miss Bradford of Aberdeen, and a daughter, Mrs. Julian of Fayette county.

The deceased had many friends in this city and county who will receive the news of his death with genuine sorrow.

MISS PRINCE ENTERTAINS.

A very pleasant entertainment was that given by Miss Lena Rose Prince at her home on Asylum avenue Wednesday afternoon from 3 to 6 in honor of Miss Elizabeth Reed of Maysville, Ky., who is the guest of Miss Nora Kehoe. The home was decorated very beautifully for the occasion with cut flowers and ferns. A novel contest was enjoyed in which the pretty young honoree's name was used. The contest cards were in pale blue and white ornamented in different species of birds. Miss Annie Waltz proved most successful and received the favor, which was a beautiful sash bag, which she graciously presented to the guest of honor. A very delightful musical program was followed by an hour spent in dancing, which was thoroughly enjoyed by all who participated in it. Afterwards delicious refreshments were served in two courses.

All the guests departed declaring Miss Prince a charming young hostess.

Those who were so fortunate as to receive invitations were: Miss Elizabeth Reed of Maysville, Ky.; Misses Nina and Lottie Nickelson of Birmingham, Ala.; Misses Marguerite Thrasher, Margaret Condon, Annette Brandau, Very Kyle, Bernice Condon, Elsie Young, Anne Waltz, Alice Oma Young, Nora Kehoe, Emily Samuels, Lena Rose Prince.

In accepting a most uniquely illustrated invitation, twenty-four ladies met on Limestone street on Tuesday morning, to be conveyed in a hay wagon to beautiful and hospitable "Sunnyside," the home of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Wallace.

Never did girls of 10 or 14 enjoy a hayride more thoroughly than did these dignified matrons on this occasion, when en route to do honor to Mr. Wallace's mother—Mrs. Thomas Wallace and her guests, Mrs. Elizabeth Wallace of Chicago and Mrs. Susan Weight of Sardia.

The merry jingle of the cow bells, the toot of the ear-splitting horns, the skillful handling of the reins over the backs of three spirited horses by the intrepid Miss Ella Wallace, together with the unusual appearance of ladies on a haywagon in the broiling sunlight, drew admiring crowds from every street, lane and hollow as the jaunters wended their way to Hilltop.

A warm welcome awaited the "city folks" upon their arrival at "Sunnyside," and from that moment, 'til the setting sun warned them that, as there were no electric lights on the Lexington pike, if they expected to reach home "right side up, with care," they must set out before it was too dark to see the steepness of the hill—all that was bright, mirthful, witty and delightful ruled the hour.

Nor was the delightful music rendered by Mr. and Miss Austin the least enjoyable feature of the entire day. Some even said "they enjoyed that more than anything else," but how could a choice be made between that and the dinner and the ride? That the dinner was "a feast fit for the Gods" goes without saying when it is known that the Wallace family superintended the cuisine.

On leaving, one and all wished the hostess "many happy returns" and pronounced it a day of unalloyed pleasure and a hayride hereafter their favorite mode of travel.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.
